PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

Graphic designer and creative specialist with 14+ years of experience turning ideas into visual solutions that get results. I can take a brief, ask the right questions, and come back with something the clients didn't even know they wanted, but needed. I work across retail, construction, technology, and professional services, creating brand identities, pitch decks, sales presentations, marketing campaigns, infographics, and digital assets. From banner ads and outdoor prints to social media and email campaigns, I handle both strategic design and hands-on execution, including professional photography and videography when projects require it. Expert in Adobe Creative Cloud. Based in Tampa, open to remote work or relocation.
